

Dr. Balakrishnan Ganesan M.E., Ph.D., is an Indian Computer Scientist currently working as Professor and Principal of Indra Ganesan College of Engineering and Director of Indra Ganesan Institutions, Tiruchirappalli since 2008. He holds a doctorate in Computer science engineering from the Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Malaysia. He received his M.E., Computer Science degree from PSG College of Technology, Coimbatore. His areas of research are Computer Vision, Fuzzy Logic and Image Processing. He is the first youngest Doctorate holder from Tiruchirapalli. He has received more than 10 research funding from various government agencies. He is the syndicate member of Anna University. He is the first person from south Tamilnadu hailing in Trichy holding the prestigious position of Syndicate of Anna University.

Under his leadership, Indra Ganesan College of Engineering has achieved Autonomous status, NAAC Accreditations, Centre of Excellence from Ministry of Heavy Industries, Microsoft, Cap Gemini, Infosys etc. He is the recipient of the Young Scientist award from the Department of Science and Technology, Government of India. He has more than 110 publications including patents, Books, Book Chapters, Journal and conference publications. 15 PhD scholars have completed their PhD under his guidance and two more are pursuing PnD under his guidance. He is an active person in social responsibilities. He has visited many countries around the globe. He is a member of six professional bodies.